The Diaconate and Hospitality Committee cordially invites everyone to join us for a luncheon to Honor Pastor Gary and his family following the worship service next Sunday. Please sign up in the Atrium by today!

Pastor Appreciation comes early this year. The Diaconate invite everyone to reach out to Pastor Gary with written greetings by putting your appreciation into words as he approaches planned retirement at the end of this month. Please take the time to remind him of a story, a moment in time, a photo, or an encouragement by mailing-in or placing a card/gift in the labelled collection box on the table in the Atrium or in the vestibule of the Sanctuary on/before March 26, his final Sunday in the pulpit as the called Senior Pastor. His service to our flock, in contiguous years, is the longest tenure of any of Flat Springs’ pastors. Gary, we thank you.

And I will give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding...

Jeremiah 3:15

In God’s Power

1 Corinthians 2:1-5 (ESV)

Introduction: Today, God is our source of power. The question is “are we properly connected”? If so, the power of God will flow through us to all we meet.

I. A Simple PROCLAMATION

a. Paul was being challenged because he was not being the greatest speaker.

b. Thank you for allowing me, a simple proclaimer of the gospel, to be your pastor.

II. A Spotlight on the PASSION

a. The focus must always be on the gospel and not anything else!

b. Thank you for being a church that still proclaims the gospel.

III. A Saving POWER

a. Romans 1:16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.

b. The power to save is only found in the gospel. That is what we must share!

Conclusion: Today, may we stick with the simple proclamation that spotlights the gospel and its power to save. Leave this place in the power of God!
