Christmas Angels

Due Sunday, December 3

Four Salvation Army Angels and their Christmas wishes are hanging on the small tree just beyond the Sanctuary on the piano side. If you feel led to provide clothing and gifts for an Angel, select a tag from the tree and grab a large plastic bag from the table.

Please log your choice on the notepad adjacent to the tree.

When you return your gifts to the Atrium, on/before Sunday, December 3rd, have the gifts stacked inside that same plastic bag with the Angel Wish List (that you removed from the tree) attached to the gift bag. If you want to provide your Angel with a large item such as a bicycle, bring it on in with a clear label tied on that identified the child for whom it is intended.

If you have questions, please reach out to Kim Harris.

Let Us Prepare our Hearts to Support those Who Share the Gospel

Since 1918, Southern Baptists have collectively increased prayer and financial support to send and sustain missionaries. One of the best known is Lottie Moon who served in China from 1873 to 1912.

“Lostness” is the world’s greatest problem – a problem Lottie saw firsthand. Meeting so many souls who had never heard the gospel compelled her to write letters to American churches describing the need for a greater missionary presence. She pleaded for increase. This challenge has become known as the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering.

Right now, as we enter a time of thanksgiving in America, will you join your heart with others to pray for missionaries around the world who are faithfully sharing the gospel? December 3-10 will mark our formal observance of a Week of Prayer for International Missions and the kick-off of the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering emphasis. Be assured that 100% of gifts go to support our missionaries.

Here is another question and a challenge from WMU: Will you join your gifts with those of others at Flat Springs for a collection of $3,000-plus? This will help support the faithful in the international mission field such as Chuck and Barb who humbly asked for our prayers and support from the pulpit early this fall.
