Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This is Bob Miles, writing for my wife Jane Miles. She is blind, so cannot write a letter.

We both want to thank you for praying for Jane. We both have very strong faith in our Lord Jesus Christ! We are full of the spirit and are looking forward to seeing His will fulfilled in everything.

Thanks to the Dorcus Mission group for the bib, Jane has used it often. She has been blind for three years and it has been quite as adjustment. The Lord has blessed her through the work of your hands. It’s people like you that make me feel his presence in my life.

May God bless you for being his servant.

In His Love,

Jane and Bob Miles

Highway to Healing

Highway to Healing is a nonprofit organization consisting of a group of volunteers who help Lee County cancer patients by driving them to and from cancer treatment appointments. Most appointments are in Sanford, Pinehurst and Chapel Hill but can also be in Durham, Raleigh, or Fayetteville. There is no cost to the patients. Volunteers are asked to drive at least once a month, but may drive as many times as their schedule allows. Volunteers pick their destination and are compensated for their gas in cooperation with local gas stations.

Drivers are badly needed. If you are interested in becoming a volunteer driver, please contact Brad Butler at 919-498-5068.
